Hello Ed,
this e-mail is to reaffirm our conversation on Friday, December 09, 2011. As directed by Judge Arguello, I contacted you to inquire about ordering the unedited version of the transcripts for the aforementioned case. You explained that Ms. Martinez, the court reporter, and Ms. Hoard, her supervisor, that the unedited version of the transcripts did not exist. Once the transcripts were edited then there was no longer any unedited version. I explained and advised that that was totally contrary to what Ms. Martinez and Ms. Hoard advised me on November 14, 2011. Ms. Martinez advised that the unedited version was available but she was not releasing the unedited version at her discretion once the edited version was made available. Ms. Hoard advised that the unedited was available for $3.05 per page.

I advised that I sent an e-mail to Ms. Martinez to confirm our conversation, between her, Ms. Hoard and I, regarding the request for the unedited version. I asked you if since that time when I talked to both, Martinez and Hoard, had the unedited version been destroyed. You advised that no, nothing should have been destroyed. You suggested that the best thing to do was file a motion to receive a copy of the unedited version, while not sure how successful that would be, and I agreed that I would take the step.

Very Truly Yours,
