RE: David Banks, inmate #36319-013

Dear President Obama,

This is Esther Banks again, writing you on behalf of my husband David Banks; one of the IRP6. The big elephant of innocent men and women behind prison walls has continuously been in the news; but has never been addressed for the notorious act of injustice that caused this to happen in the first place. This is true for my husband David Banks.

I have seen innocent men be released from prison after spending 20 to 30 years behind bars; with not so much as an investigation into the wrongful conviction. I know that you are giving pardons to guilty inmates. Have you considered clemency to the many innocent men behind prison walls? I am again urging you to consider my husband David Banks.

If you have any questions regarding this most urgent matter please contact Lamont Banks of A Just Cause at (719)439-5951, who is aiding in the effort to bring my husband home.

Sincerely,

Esther Banks
