Also included on some were telephone numbers & addresses that were mostly unverified.

Information Provided: RANDY SACHTER
Lives in Netherland, CO
Teacher (unknown where)

LOCATE INVESTIGATION:

I initiated a located investigation. Information returned many possibilities that included numerous telephone numbers (unverified), address history, and personal identifying information.

I perused through the results of the searches and proceeded by selecting the name(s) most probable of being the SUBJECT from the information provided by the Client.

After which I commenced telephoning the various phone numbers ascertained. This is a result of my investigation.

INTERVIEW OF RANDY BETH SACHTER:

On Saturday, November 17, 2012 at approximately 4 pm, Investigator, Venus Lovetere spoke with Ms. Randy Beth Sachter telephonically at a Colorado telephone number, [REDACTED]. I made her aware, who I was and why I was calling. Ms. Sachter stated that she was an alternate juror in the above captioned case and therefore did not deliberate..

I attempted to interview Ms. Sachter regarding her thoughts on the case to no avail. Ms. Sachter was unwilling to speak about the case. However, she had additional comments as to why she would not speak with me. They are:

- She was uncomfortable talking about the case. She used the term 'uncomfortable' at least 3 times.
- Was told that they (the Jurors) did not have to talk to anyone on the defense side and that if anyone tried calling them they (the Jurors) could contact the Prosecutor/Attorney.

Note: She asked if this 'statement' was true. My reply to her was that she/the Jurors could talk to anyone they wanted to after the trial ended. And that I don't know what was told to her, but that they (the Jurors) could contact the Prosecutor if they wanted, that it's up to them.

- She heard the entire case but since all Jurors were present to deliberate, she was dismissed and therefore did not participate in the verdict.
- During the trial she did not discuss the case with any of the Jurors.
- She inquired as to my role in this case, what 'side' I represented.

I explained that I did not 'represent' any side directly, but that I was hired by people whom are friendly with the defense and asked me to speak with the Jurors to ascertain the process on how they reached their decision.

When asked if anyone told her (the Jurors) that she couldn't talk to anyone about the case, she stated in a round-about way that she was told 'that' (as a group) but was she was more-so evasive with her response then she was willing to help.

When asked who told her (the Jurors) that they couldn't speak to anyone. She did not name a person, but responded by saying that she was very uncomfortable talking about the case.

I explained that she would not be in trouble if she talked with me, since the case was over, plus it had been over 1 year since the trial ended. That she didn't have to talk to me (of course) but she could if she wanted to. I attempted to learn why she was so uncomfortable, to no avail.

At this time I elected not to continue and thanked her for her time.

Terminated.
